MEMORIAL DAY

I wish at this time to call the attention of the different patriotic organizations and the general public as well, to the importance of devoting their attention and giving their time on this day, May 30, to assist in the observance of Memorial Day. This is the one day of the year for the purpose of showing our gratitude and appreciation for the men who, through their heroic service and sacrifice, from the time of the birth of the nation down through the great World War, have preserved the ideals and institutions of this American nation, and by their sacrifice and service, have created an ideal of patriotism, which we are proud to call Americanism.

In celebrating this day, which is dedicated to the memories of these men, we are simply showing our individual attitude toward this ideal we call patriotism and it must appeal to all real Americans that this is a duty, an obligation. Further than this, it is a strong object lesson to the children, in patriotism, and at this time particularly something which will quicken the pulse of appreciation for genuine, honest, sincere service will not be wasted on the men and women of our country, and with the realization that it is a duty, an obligation—let us make it a labor of love. Let us devote our time this day to the memories of the saviors of the country devoutly and sincerely with gratitude in our hearts and a deep appreciation for their heroic and sacrificial service.

In this great patriotic observance the American Legion must soon take the lead, the soldier dead of the World War is now, and the dead of all other wars must soon become the American Legion's peculiar care.

Let me urgently request that every ex-service man in the community whether he belong to the Legion post or not, make himself known so that he may join in line at the exercises at the Soldiers' Monument in the morning. All members of the American Legion Post are expected to be present, in uniform. Do your duty.

George L. Bates.

BURIED IN MORRISVILLE

Sudden Death of Well Known Hotel Man, C. H. Campbell

The funeral of the late Charles H. Campbell, who dropped dead early last week in the fire station at Old Orchard, Me., where he delighted to spend his leisure hours from his duties at the Vesper Hotel, of which he was the proprietor, was held from the home of his brother, A. E. Campbell, at Barre Sunday.

The funeral services at Old Orchard were held at the Vesper House, the parlors of the structure being used for the purpose, and there was a large floral tribute there. Friends and others who had stopped at the house during the past few years were present from all parts of New England to pay tribute to the man who was the keystone in all affairs affecting the community welfare of Old Orchard. All of the clerks whom Mr. Campbell had ever hired during his regime as owner of the Vesper Hotel were present at the services to pay tribute to a man whom they respected and loved as an employer and friend.

The Rev. Mr. Clancy of the Methodist Church at Old Orchard conducted the services there and spoke of Mr. Campbell, not as a member of his congregation, but as the man as he knew him from personal and business contact. He declared the death to be the greatest blow of the kind Old Orchard had ever suffered and said that Mr. Campbell had always placed the welfare of the community at the resort before his own personal interest. He was the founder and president of the golf and country club at the resort until the time of his death and was behind every permanent move for the betterment of the community there. It was said of him that he always played the game square with everyone and would not harm anyone intentionally.

The services held at Barre were conducted by Rev. George F. Fortier, pastor of the Universalist Church and one of the most beautiful ever held in the city, and the floral tribute was one of the most profuse and beautiful ever seen in the city. These came from friends all over this section of the country, says the Barre Daily Times.

The bearers at the services were A. E. Campbell, E. H. Campbell, O. N. Campbell and H. L. Campbell, four brothers of the deceased. The body was attended by both the veteran and present firemen of the station, with whom Mr. Campbell was personally acquainted, having at one time been chief of the Barre department. His greatest hobby was to spend a portion of his spare time with the men in the fire station wherever he went.

Among those present from out of town attending the services were: Homer Calkins, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Campbell, Wendell Campbell of Hardwick; O. N. Campbell and wife, Mrs. Harvey Hyde, A. B. Collins, E. B. Collins and Mabel S. Collins of Hyde Park; C. L. Gates and wife, Bertha Herrick, Myra Herrick, Charles H. Herrick, Andrew Calkins and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Calkins of Morrisville; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gimeaux, Miss Delta Collins of Bellows Falls; Mrs. Elizabeth Griswold, Miss Avis Badger and Walter Benson of Old Orchard, who accompanied the body here; Mr. and Mrs. George Badger of Springfield, William Ingalls of Greensboro and Lawrence Campbell, who came here from Dartmouth College to be present.

The burial was in Pleasant View cemetery.

W. C. T. U. Convention

The 22nd annual convention of the Lamoille County W. C. T. U. was held last week Wednesday with the Union at Wolcott, and was of splendid interest to all who attended. The forenoon was devoted to business and a short address by Mrs. Elsie P. Barney. Refreshments were provided by the ladies of Wolcott in bountiful supply.

In the afternoon a program of music and readings was given; a masterful address by the state president, Mrs. Barney, upon the subject, "Our Supreme Task." At 3:30 the teachers of the village school accompanied the pupils to the church where they were given a practical talk by Mrs. Barney.

Resolutions were adopted to sustain the Volstead act, and law enforcement; to endorse the act of Mr. Hayes in censoring the movie picture films.

Two changes were made in superintendents of departments, now being Mrs. Gertrude Wheeler for anti-narcotics, and Miss Oella Thompson for Loyal Temperance Legion.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Inez Stewart; secretary, Mrs. Grace Freer; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Freer; first vice president, Mrs. Emma Fisher; second vice president, Mrs. Ethel Potter; assistant secretary, Miss Oella Thompson.

ANNUAL MEETING OF UNITY CLUB

As briefly noted in last week's paper, the Unity Club met for its annual meeting at the church parlors on Tuesday evening of last week, when a covered dish supper was served to about 40 members and three guests. The club was honored by the presence of one of its honorary members, Mrs. Lizzie Munson, and it was very much regretted that Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Hardy could not also have been present. A most sumptuous repast consisting of various hot dishes with accompanying relishes, salads, rolls, cake, ice cream and coffee was heartily partaken of, as the Unity cooks are only equalled by their appetites.

At eight o'clock, the president, Mrs. Florence McFarland, called the meeting to order and the annual reports of the secretary and treasurer were read. Both reports were very satisfactory, the former showing a satisfying growth of membership, although two members had been lost through change of residence. The treasurer showed a most gratifying amount earned for the past year, with all pledges paid to date and a small balance in the treasury in spite of the many demands made upon it by the relief committee, whose work stands for so much in the life of the church as well as the community at large.

Several business items came up for discussion, the most important of which was the opening of the membership of the Unity to all the women who make the Congregational Church their home in this community. When the Unity was first organized under the pastorate of Rev. C. C. St. Clare, it was primarily a Sunday School class and as such only women who were not identified with any other class were eligible for membership. Since the club has grown so large and has practically now become the one large social organization in the church, its membership should be open to everyone who wishes to be identified with it, and it is the earnest wish of all the Unity that any woman in the church who would like to become a member will feel absolutely welcome to come to the next meeting in June and help by her influence the work the club is endeavoring to carry on.

It also was voted to change the time of the meetings from the second Tuesday in the month, back to the second Monday, the original time called for by the by-laws of the club.

It was also voted not to hold any meetings during July and August, as so many of the members are out of town during the vacation period.

Mrs. McFarland then vacated the chair and Mrs. Blanche Morse, chairman of the nominating committee, presided and gave the report of said committee, which was unanimously adopted and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Alberta Bedell; vice president, Susie Mould; secretary, Mrs. Grace Blodgett; treasurer, Mrs. Lilla Lease; chairman relief committee, Miss Susan Downer; chairman executive committee, Mrs. Lizzie Bruce; chairman friendship committee, Mrs. Sophia Goodliffe; press reporter, Miss Nan Wombell.

DEVELOPING A MARKET FOR OUR PRODUCTS

Business expansion is by no means haphazard. It entails study and research. That our country may win in the race for world trade the Department of Commerce keeps its agents abroad to search business opportunities. The details of their work are brought out in the seventh of a series of folders on Our Government which we are distributing each month. The complete series gives a highly interesting and instructive account of Our Government and its advantages to you.

Send your name and address and we shall mail you the stories issued previously and each pamphlet published in the future—one every month.
